

Did you know, people very rarely donate new socks to the homeless? Just think about it. When your old clothes wear out, or go out of style, most people simply donate them to a good cause.

But what do people do with their old socks?

They usually throw them out because they're worn out.

Socks are the number one item the shelters need –all sizes, all colors.

During October

St. John of the Cross Women's Group and the Knights of Columbus are sponsoring a

“Sock Drive”

The socks will be donated to St. Vincent DePaul's Shelter in Waterbury.

There will be a basket in FFH and the back of the church for your donation during the month of October.
